

MAY IS

Asian Pacific American Month

Special places and programs in the park...

Grace Quan

Chinese Shrimp Junk

LOCATION: Hyde Street Pier
Look for Grace Quan tied up at the pier, or sailing on the bay. Traditional shrimp junks were built locally by 19th century Chinese immigrants who fished in San Francisco and San Pablo Bay.

Grace Quan Raises Sail!

Sat, MAY 10 and 17, at 11:30am
LOCATION: Hyde Street Pier • FREE
Watch her sail being raised, come aboard, haul a net, explore the cabin, take a turn at the tiller!

DID YOU KNOW? You can explore the site of a Chinese fishing village at China Camp State Park in San Rafael (a short ride north). Open daily.

Chinatown

Aboard a Square Rigger!

LOCATION: Ship *Balclutha
Cargo Is King! Exhibit Open Daily

Descend below deck and go inside the living quarters of the “China gang” (mostly Chinese, Japanese, Filipinos and Blacks) who sailed on Balclutha (renamed Star of Alaska) to work in Alaskan canneries.

Chinese Cannery Workers

Sun, MAY 11 and 25, at 1:00pm

LOCATION: Ship Balclutha
Admission to ships: Adults $5, under 16 Free

A RANGER-LED WALKING TOUR about the lives and cultural contributions of the “China gang” laborers who sailed north for the great salmon runs.

In Search of

Gold Mountain

LOCATION: Voyages Exhibit in the Visitor Center (you are here)
19th century Chinese immigrants crossed the Pacific in search of the mythic “Gold Mountain”. Explore these and other stories from a variety of Asian immigrants in the park’s Voyages exhibit.

DID YOU KNOW? You can visit the Angel Island Immigration Station, in the middle of San Francisco Bay, where Chinese immigrants from the 19th and early 20th century were detained. See the actual poems carved into their barracks. Angel Island State Park access is by ferry only. Open daily.

